

CSI DMC promotes Gabi Krueger-Winther

CSI DMC is proud to announce that Gabi Krueger-Winther has been promoted to Vice President of Sales for our Washington, DC office. In addition to her current responsibilities of leading the DC office's account management team, Gabi will assume leadership of the business development team of CSI's Washington, DC office, working with them to expand CSI's relationships in the industry throughout the city. Gabi joined CSI DMC as an account associate in 2005 and has grown within the company ever since. She spent her early years with the company working in operations and maintains a close connection and understanding with the event management team. Gabi became the Director of Sales for the Washington DC office in 2019, helping to manage and guide the account management team within the Washington, DC office, including the satellite office based in-house at the Marriott Marquis Washington, DC.

Gabi shared one of her proudest moments during her time so far at CSI DMC which included problem-solving for a complex program of over 1,000 guests. The program comprised of buy-outs of exclusive and historic locations as well as numerous tours around the city. To top it all off, everything had to be completed in a singular day! It's accomplishing challenges like these that make Gabi excited to wake up every day loving her job and ready to tackle the next obstacle. She expresses, "it is never boring-no program is ever the same!" Please join us in congratulating Gabi on her promotion!
